

Basic Equality Opportunities Policy For All U.A.E Examinations

- Candidates will only be restricted by the lower age limits of the examinations and these are for safety reasons.
- Other than the lower age limitations anyone may be entered into an exam if their teacher deems them ready to do so.
- Candidates are only judged upon whether or not they are able to perform the basic requirements to pass and graded upon this.
- Candidates will not be restricted based on the following: Age, Race, Religion, Gender, Sexual orientation, Education, Social or economic background, Spent criminal convictions, Country of origin or any other information other than the ability to perform the tasks required to pass the exam.
